Projects

- Building A Programming Language (okey) (2023) (python) Team Project-
  I collaborated with a team to develop a toy programming language inspired by the Bhilang language, utilizing Python as the primary implementation tool. This project required strong teamwork, problem-solving, and communication skills as we navigated through the conceptualization, design, and implementation phases. Through this experience, I gained valuable insights into language design principles, software development methodologies, and the importance of effective collaboration in achieving project goals.

- Exam Portal System(2024)(java,spring,springboot,Angular) Solo Project -I designed and implemented a comprehensive exam portal utilizing Spring Boot and Angular technologies. This dynamic platform features distinct portals for administrators and users, ensuring efficient management and seamless examination experiences...This project underscores my proficiency in full-stack development, leveraging Spring Boot and Angular to deliver a robust, feature-rich solution tailored to the needs of adminisand users alike. Through meticulous design and implementation, I have demonstrated my ability to create innovative solutions that address complex requirements while prioritizing user experience and functionality.
